Edwin Louis Cole Man of the Year Award

Since 1996 thousands of men have been biblically trained as MDN's vision is to see "One Million Men Trained in the Word of God by the Church of God." Our mission continues to be rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ as men have experienced the joy of realizing their freedom through MDN's system of male discipleship as the Gospel becomes practical and attractive, affecting their families, church and community.

Recognition:

This award recognizes a man who has positively influenced the church, his family and community. He should have a love and zeal for Christ which is evidenced of growth in his spiritual life, family life and his church life. He goes the distance in ministry with a strong conviction in building up others to live in the freedom that Christ provided through the Gospel that makes men whole. Please write how this person would best represent Men's Discipleship Network Man of the Year.
